

AFTERNOON

Designer: Claesson Koivisto Rune

"Afternoon Wood is a new addition to the successful Afternoon/Noon collection. Today it has become something of a Skandiform classic.

Over the years many people have asked us and Skandiform if it would be possible to design a variation on the theme with wooden legs. Well, now we have done!

We have looked carefully at the proportions of the original seat shell and worked hard to find a solution that produces suitably harmonious dimensions for the legs. We have also chosen to visually "separate" the legs from the seat shell to give the chair a lighter look. And, while we were at it, we took the opportunity to design a new coffee table to match, as well!"
