

AEON

Designer: Claesson Koivisto Rune

"Aeon Lounge is a new addition to our Aeon series of conference chairs. After numerous requests both direct to us and to Skandiform, we decided to set about designing a lower, lounge-chair version of Aeon.

Aeon Lounge is a little broader, a little lower and a little softer to sit in. Our new design has taken the form of easy chair and compact sofa models, and we have also designed a link table, so now you can create entire settings with the Aeon Lounge series. There is, of course, also a matching coffee table for the new models."
